Health promotion through brief interventions: Broadening the scope to communities and lifestyles

Focus

Bringing together researchers, clinicians, policymakers, public health practitioners and community actors, the INEBRIA-PEACHD 2026 Conference will provide a high-level forum to advance evidence and practice in screening and brief interventions (SBI) for alcohol, other substances, and related lifestyle risk factors linked to cancer and other noncommunicable diseases. The event, hosted by Charles University, in Prague, will be held from Wednesday 14 – Friday 16 October. The conference will be forward looking and endeavour to inspire sustained collaboration and action; responding to real-world complexity and the needs of diverse populations, and contributing to tackling the health inequalities faced in Europe.

PEACHD (Piloting European Action on Cancer Health Determinants) is an EU-funded Action Grant focussed on primary prevention of cancer, which will operationalise and adapt the WHO-EU BRIEF approach to reduce risky lifestyle behaviours, such as alcohol use, smoking, unhealthy diet and physical activity. The project develops, tailors and pilots large-scale implementation strategies for screening and brief intervention on multiple modifiable lifestyle behaviours, with special attention to people with low socioeconomic status, migrants, and Ukrainian refugees, in three European countries: Czech Republic, Poland and Spain.

PEACHD (Grant Agreement No. 101129260, www.peachd4health.eu) is (Co-)Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or HaDEA. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be held responsible for them.

INEBRIA (International Network on Brief Interventions for Alcohol and Other Drugs) is an international network of researchers, policy makers, practitioners and other stakeholders interested in the potential of brief interventions in health and other settings to reduce the harms produced by alcohol and other drug use. It aims to provide global leadership in the development, evaluation and implementation of evidence-based practice in the area of early identification and brief intervention for hazardous and harmful substance use. <https://inebria.net/>

The event is hosted and organised under the patronage granted by the Dean of the 1st Faculty of Medicine, Charles University, Prague.
